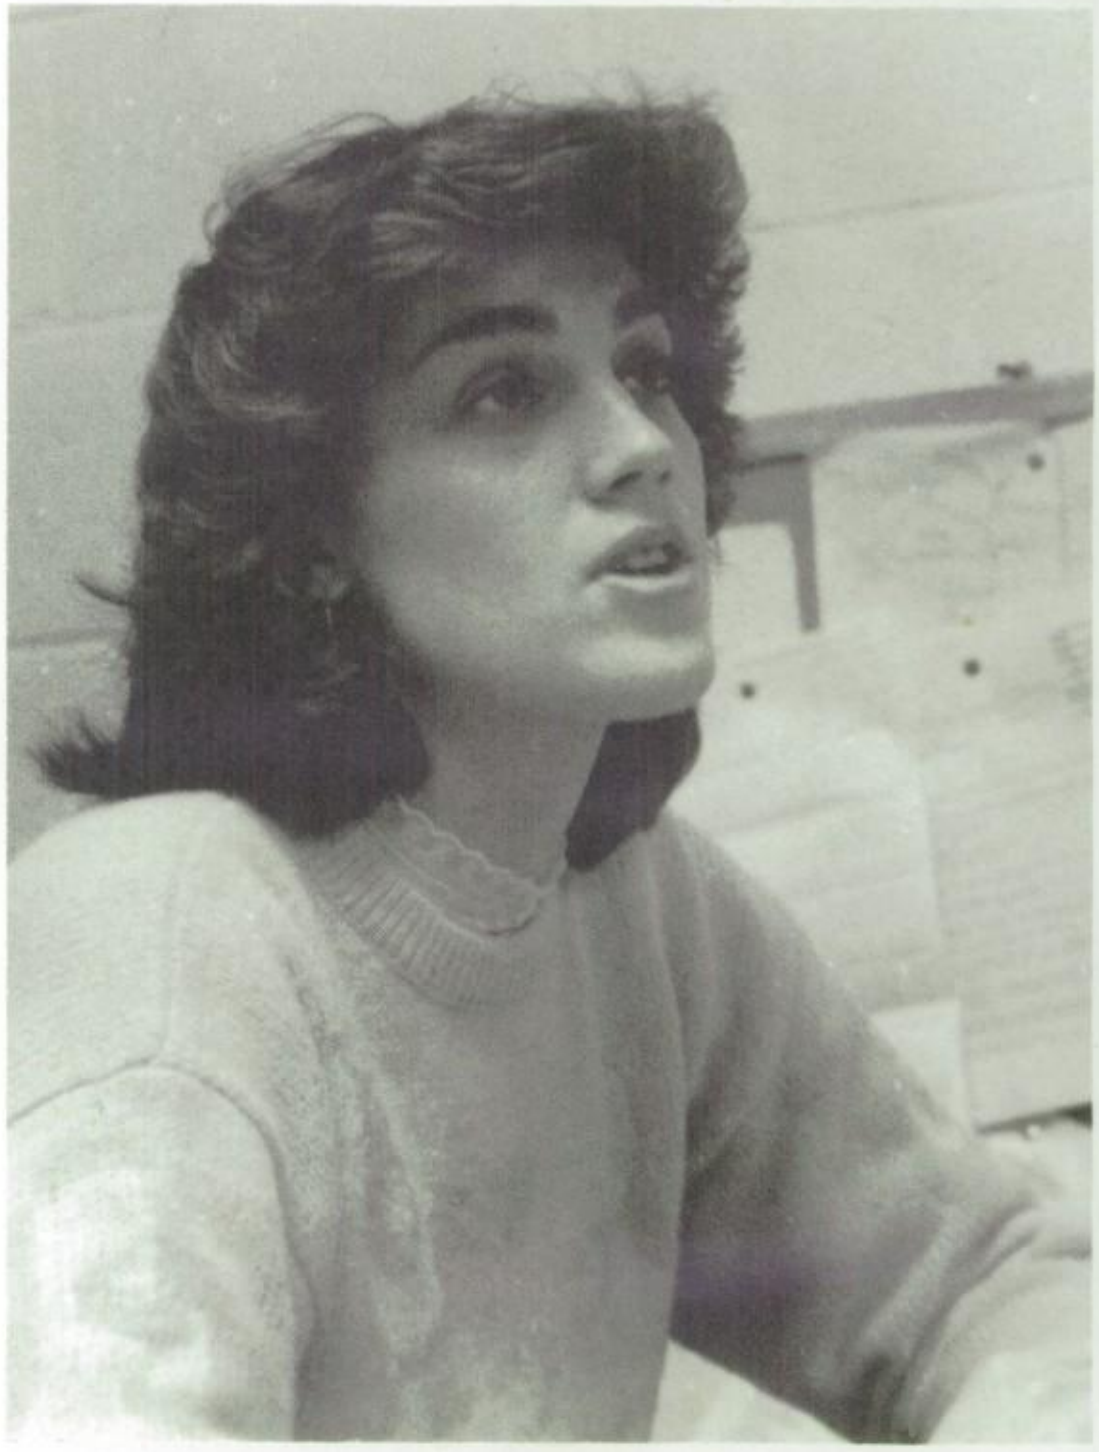
THE 1986
EDGERSTOUNIAN

THE HUN SCHOOL OF PRINCETON

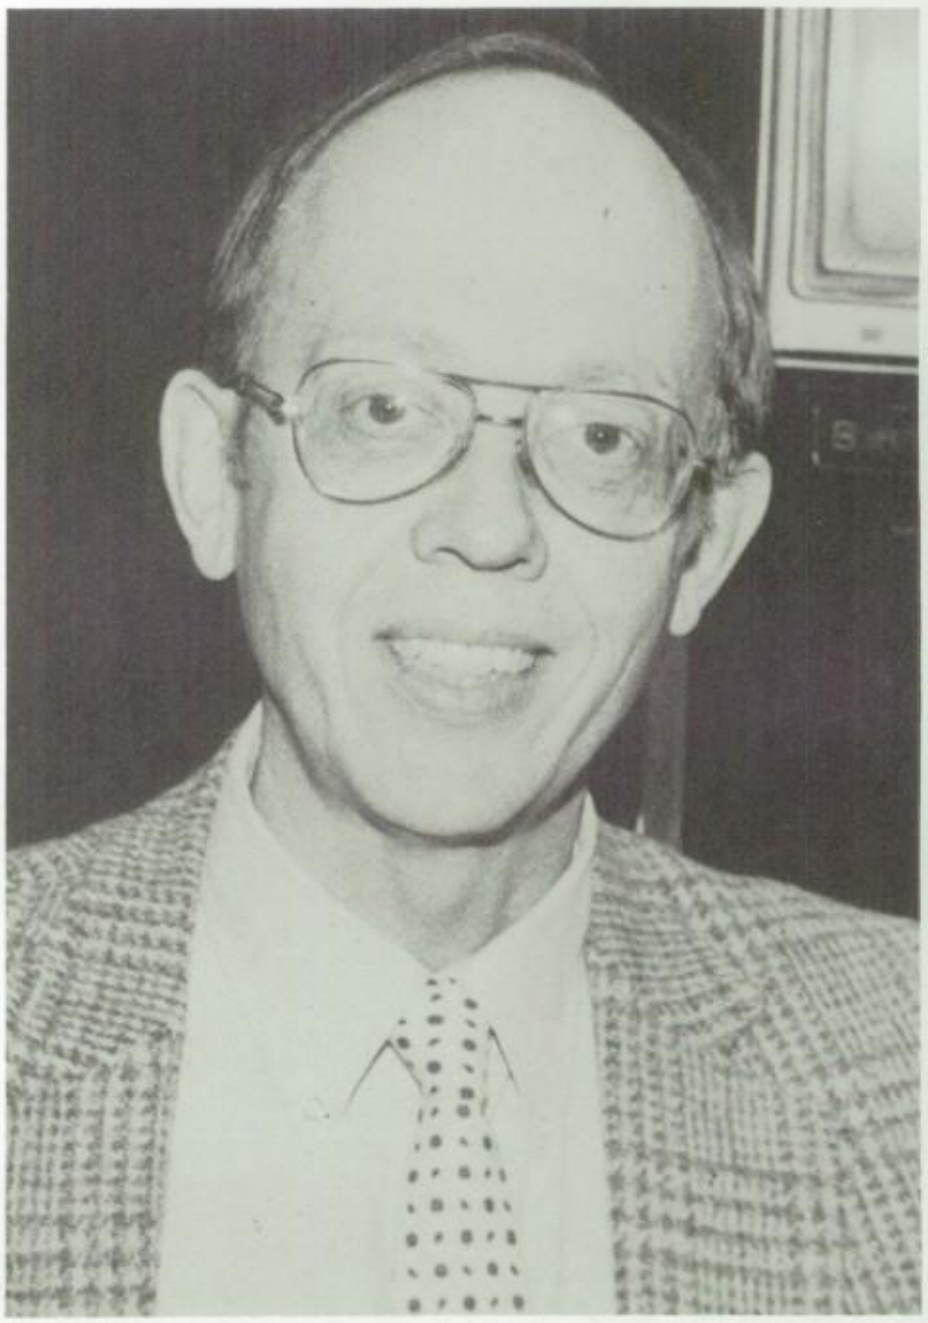
TRIBUTE

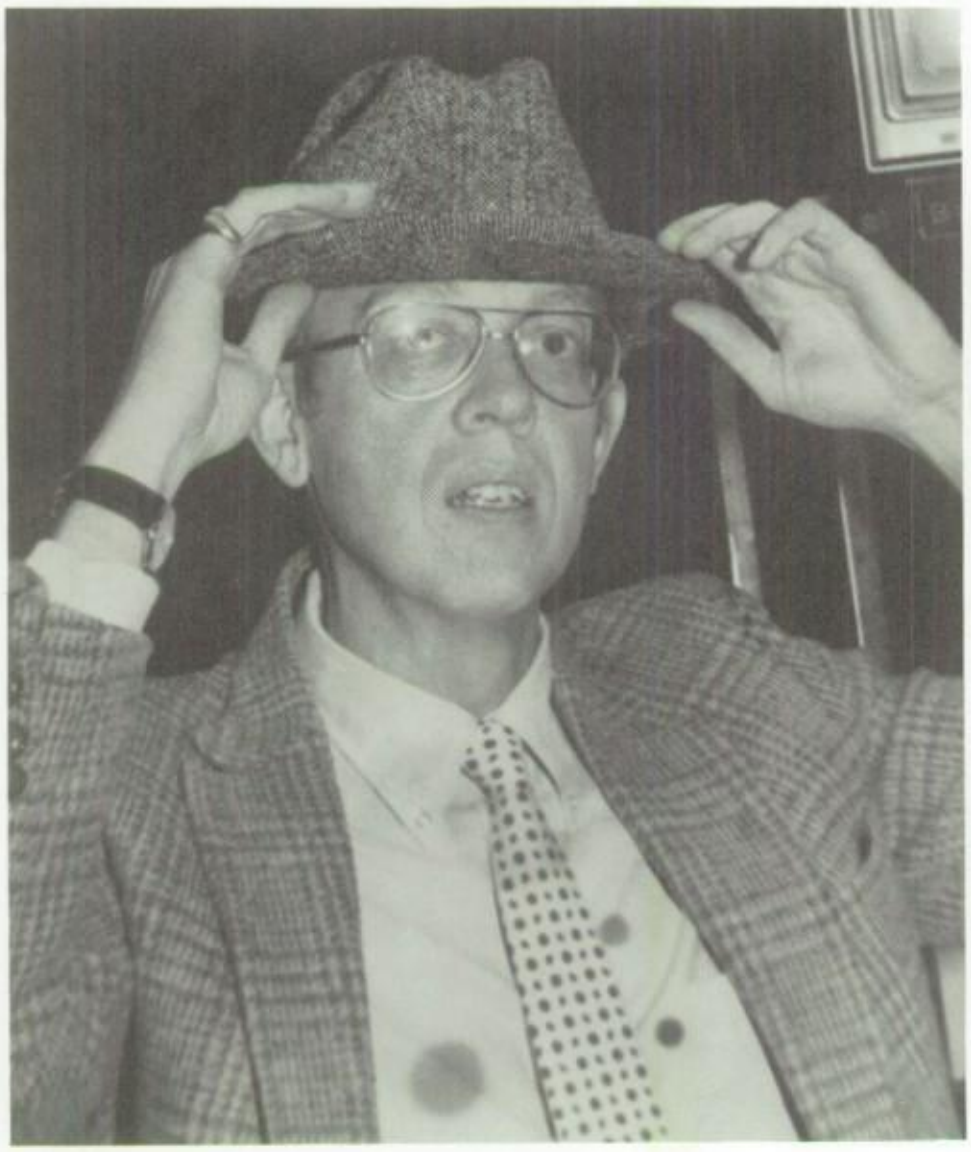


In our senior year, one person shared our anxiety over upcoming deadlines on applications, spent long hours making sure they were perfect, and comforted us during the long void between January and April, when we finally found out where we seniors would spend the next four years.

Hun's devoted secretary is remarkably patient, accurate, and dedicated to her work. She truly cares, as seen in her smile, in the bright future of all whom she has helped. In honor of her dedication and unsurpassed spirit, we, the Class of 1986, sincerely present our tribute to Miss Mary Jo Matthews.

DEDICATION





"And gladly wolde he lerne, and gladly teche." One faculty member personifies Chaucer's ideal scholar. His knowledge of literature is extensive because he loves to read; the intellectual power of his students is enhanced because his teaching challenges. One outstanding aspect of his teaching is that not only does he have his classes experience authors with whom he shares the same opinions, but he is secure enough to have them study the works of authors with whom he disagrees. Because he is a teacher truly dedicated to the liberal arts, we, the Class of 1986, are proud to dedicate the 1986 Edgerstounian to Mr. James Kerr.

Maybe the time is passed, but memories never grow old; they're always there with you, always to be shared: the things we've done, the times we've laughed, the months we've cried — on these our friendship has been built. Life goes forever onward, never stopping to look back except on the times that we shared, where memories were made.

These continue to be wondrous times when every man tries to find a formula for keeping the stranger's fingers from his throat. The simple expedient of holding hands will someday occur to a couple of people who will forever after be forgotten. We need to read and to think and to study the faces of our friends . . . a peaceful pursuit. But in the light of our trial bombs bursting in air and the flash of the practice red rockets' glittering glare, the study of peace is a blinky business.

As I look back at these last four years of my life,
I remember the friendships broken and the friendships made,
I remember the times spent worrying and the good times,
I remember the disappointments and the accomplishments,
All these memories have become a part of my life that I will cherish forever. But now the time has come for all of us to go our separate ways and continue with our lives.

To my "BESTEST BUDDY" Thanx for all the fun — I'll remember it all always! I'll miss ya lots — but remember
1-4-3!
Luv Ya,
A.J.

Russ,
Who was driving the Jensen? Sorry about the water, but you asked for it. (Even if you were right.)
Love,
Leigh

Sasha —
If we fail, if we succeed, at least we'll live as we believe, no matter what they take from us, they can't take away our dignity.

Mr. Brown, have you seen Moe, Larry, and Curly today?
Lipid

Is it rare? No, it's white. I'll see you in Georgetown.
Love,
Leigh

Jen — I'll see ya in the summer P.T. program, Dudette! (ya gotta kiss a lot of Frogs.)
Liz — Is my hair OK? — Ho de doo!
Love, Betsy

The Crew — Goin' Hawaiian

Friends sometimes grow apart for the LEAST significant of reasons . . . Is this true or were we just never friends?

Taco is unique! "SKOR" and "3 Musketeers", plane flights, rice balls, NYC, Aunt Abe, and . . . our favorite: seaweed! Good luck and take care!

Wu #3 — Are you going to lunch? — Let's eat "Rice Ball"! I know we love "seaweed" . . . weekend — Sure! I'll sleep in "TATAMI"! Don't forget "SKOR"!

Love, YUTAKA'S
